LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,
Lemon Grove Review
Dear Mr. Goodwin:

Widening of Cypress Street as recommended by the Chamber of Commerce and the condemnation of our front yards is one of the cruelest things ever proposed by a civic group. Is it fair for the merchants on the Board to speak for us without a hearing? It seems they are willing to sacrifice our homes so they can make more money. If any part of my yard is taken I will take my business elsewhere and I think my neighbors will too.

If I would like to know who gave the chamber the right to speak for us homeowners, I would like also to know who thought up this plan to confiscate front yards of all the homes on Cypress while a cow pasture suitable for a road is behind these houses. The guy who thought this one up ought to be exposed and should be put to justice. It is the most undemocratic deal I ever heard of and my neighbors think so too.

When they take 20 feet off each lawn it will be to allow for sidewalks as well as the widening. Cypress Avenue property owners will have to pay for the sidewalks. We do not want to 40 foot street or sidewalks either.

If the chamber of commerce does not have a public meeting to give the victims of this fraud a chance to be heard the chamber should be closed down.

C. W. Brown In School Board Race

Committed to a policy of obtaining the most direct benefit from tax dollars, C. W. Brown, Jr., 26 year old Rohr Aircraft employee stated this week that he is seeking the school trustee job because he is vitally interested in his community and wants to do something about it.

Brown, who resides at 2186 McKnight Street, is married and has a 4 month old daughter.

As an outlet for his enthusiasm, he joined and became a board member of the La Mesa Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is the nearest such organization to Lemon Grove.

So far, only one boy has been killed.

Meanwhile, the Board of Supervisors, urged by a letter from Byron Netzel, district superintendent of Lemon Grove schools, instructed the sheriff to find the quarry owner and order him to fence the property or face prosecution.

Irrigation Dribbles

By Harry Griffin
Irrigation District Director for Lemon Grove area.

More than $450 per month will be gained by the L. G. L. M. Irrigation District for use of Cuyamaca Lake bottoms for grazing cattle, it was learned this week. Bids are being called for establishing $450 per month as minimum and little difficulty is expected in getting a lease.

Another action taken by the District at this week's meeting is the awarding of a contract to Shell Oil Co. for approximately 50,000 gallons of gas at 23c rate less 2c Federal tax, less a discount of 2c, was negotiated.

Purchase of $12,360 of 12" cast iron pipe to lay from Massachusetts to Main for the approved water main project was also made at this week's meeting.

Lee Thompson Heads Civic Investigating Group

The meeting of the Lemon Grove Civic Investigating Committee April 21, saw the election of a new president, Lee Thompson. He was voted to replace John Dall who had resigned at the previous March meeting. Attended by a scant 35 persons, several walked out in protest to a meeting occupied mainly by debate over definitions and procedural difficulties.

Principal rift was whether it was a public meeting of the full Civic Investigating Committee, as had been announced, or a meeting of the new sub-committee.

Farewell To A Newspaper Landmark

An editorial by Max Goodwin

Something has been changed in the Lemon Grove Review this week. The change, we think, though late in coming, is indicative of the progress of the area.

The change is the removal of the citrus grove background in the center of our masthead. As a basis for comparison, a similar, though smaller masthead, without a change, is reproduced at the bottom of the page.

The editor of the REVIEW joins with many another realistic thinking citizen in acknowledging the fact that kids are sprouting in beautiful residential patios where lemon trees once grew... that schools and playgrounds are replacing orange and tangerine groves... that this once sleepy, little, citrus-growing area is now a thriving, bustling market center and first class residential area.

The REVIEW has contributed to this growth in some small respect, it feels, and the sacrifice of the agricultural background of its former masthead is small enough additional contribution to the inalterable march of progress.

Bernie Strong, 13, of 7454 San Miguel, present at the time of the mishap, summoned help and threw a rope to David Hobbs, 12, of 7579 Roosevelt, who was trapped on the quarry wall.

Survey Shows Incorporation Preferred Over Annexation

In order to find out what some of Lemon Grove's citizens think about the recent decision on the part of a group, known as the Home Rule Association, to incorporate Lemon Grove, the REVIEW sent out its roving reporter last week to question a few people.

Of the 41 persons interviewed, the majority readily admitted that they needed more information on the benefits and disadvantages of incorporation before they could make a definite decision. If they had to decide immediately, 27 preferred incorporation of Lemon Grove as a sixth class city over annexation to either San Diego or La Mesa. Only one expressed favor for the latter city, and five chose annexation to San Diego. The rest declined to take sides.

Some of the representative interviews are presented below. Mrs. C. E. Hines, 1665 Skyline Drive, "I don't know too much about it yet, but I don't feel that

Associated with Patricia will be her husband C. L. Mahoney who is a former El Paso department store executive.

MIL'S MUSINGS

By Richard Milbrodt

AFTER THE RECENT THREATS of surrounding territory to remove themselves from the Lemon Grove School District (and the such step actually realized), it is heartening to see that somebody finally would like to join up with us. To those of you who may have missed it, one of the dailies last week reported that the Rolando Park Civic Association will consider the possibility of annexing to the Lemon Grove Fire District. In view of the uniqueness of such a deal, question of the week is: what will Lemon Grove do about it?

This may seem dull until we recall that the honorable Dr. FRANK GIGLIOTTI has been trying unsuccessfully for quite some time to change his own street officially named to Gigliotti Drive. The request has been refused because the esteemed gentleman that he is named only after famous personalities. (Or horses? Ed.)

Herder Quits -- Asks Support For Armstrong

"It is an asset to have an attorney on the school board," said Lawrence Herder last week as he made public his decision to retire as school trustee after nine years service. He had previously withdrawn his name from the race in favor of Frank Armstrong.

Herder originally was invited to serve by George Flagg, attorney, now deceased. He was re-elected twice to the board and has an enviable record of conscientious effort.

"While I had children in school I felt it was my duty to serve. Armstrong has children entering the school system, and he

A London reporter has uncovered a bold plan on the part of British nudists to call attention to their cut. In its barest outlines, the plan is for small parties of nudists to infiltrate each public beach at the first sign of spring.

The nudists may find that on San Diego beaches in this day of Bikini bathing suits they will have to do something more startling to publicize their cause. They might cause far more attention if they wore old fashioned ankle length suits, or at the very least, rode onto the beaches on horseback.

Series to Explain Pros And Cons of Incorporation

Two weeks ago a group of citizens organized the Lemon Grove Home Rule Association for the avowed purpose of incorporating Lemon Grove into a sixth class city. This action was the result of a survey of available forms of government for an unincorporated area and was completed by the Lemon Grove Civic Investigating Committee after a 12 months study.

In order that readers may be fully informed on what incorporation means, the REVIEW is beginning a series in this issue that is hoped will answer what questions are, how it will affect the people of Lemon Grove, and some of its advantages and disadvantages. If you have any specific questions not covered by the series, please feel free to submit them and answer will be attempted. Should any source care to submit informative articles on other types of government, it will be given equal space. Article I Incorporation is a term used to signify the installation of a city class city. This action was the government in an area previously without one. This process is defined in detail by state law. In the State of California, the official designation of a newly formed city is an incorporated sixth class city. Originally in California there were 12 classes of cities, each class having a different type of city government permitted it, and each class determined by population. This procedure has been streamlined until now there is but one class of city, the sixth.

The state law provides for the newly formed city to follow either the manager-council plan or the mayor-council plan of government. This will be discussed later.

How does an area incorporate incorporation in specific area. This area must be described in detail in the petition which in turn must be signed by 25% of the area's population who must own 25% of the assessed valuation of that area.

Sanitation Committee Has Question - Answering Service

More than one hundred questions concerning the Spring Valley Sanitation District and the proposed sewer installation already have been received by the Federated Sanitation Committee from interested residents of the Sanitation District, according to Virgil Cash, General Chairman of this group of proponents for the forthcoming bond issue election.

These questions, said Cash, "reflect the serious and intelligent thought being given to this problem. Our Research sub-committee is analyzing the questions now so that they may soon be submitted to the proper officials and engineering and fiscal experts for answering. Most of the questions cannot be answered correctly until the final report of the County Department of Public Works is received by the Board of Supervisors."

Cash urged all residents of the Sanitation District to submit any questions they may have, in writing, to the Federated Sanitation Committee, 9047 Campo Road, Spring Valley. "Only by getting these questions out into the open can they be answered satisfactorily so that people can exercise their own judgement."

Better Water Pressure Cinched for Middle Grove

Almost a mile of new water main will be laid in Lemon Grove in the immediate future. It was announced by the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District.

A contract for 2,065 feet of six inch pipeline on Berry St. has already been let to the W. F. Nelson Company for $10,500.

The District will call for bids early in May for work to start early in June on the installation of a 12 inch main on the south side of Broadway to the east side of Imperial, and connecting with the existing main on Golden Ave. in one direction, to North Ave. on the other.

The District was forced to acquire easements because the State Highway Division does not permit water mains within the highway right of way. As a result, the pipe line ditch will be fairly close to the business houses during construction and some traffic problems may possibly result.

M. J. Shelton, general manager and chief engineer for the Irrigation District, said the contractors will be required to move dirt from the ditches immediately and to place crossovers for automobile and foot traffic in order to cut down traffic problems to the minimum.

A 38 hour deadline is being set for the work in the business district of Lemon Grove.

"Improved service to the central part of Lemon Grove will be immediately apparent," Shelton said. "This improvement, in effect, completes a transmission grid involving three sources of supply to the central part of Lemon Grove. This is the final phase of a three year program contemplated under a bond issue which failed in 1918 and which has been accomplished as revenue permitted.

"This is part of a master plan calling for pipeline construction to the south to tie in with the new main.

"The immediate effect of this work will be adequate water supply where commercial values are greatest. It is also possible that further reduction of fire insurance rates may result," he added.

Bean Dinner in Bowery Atmosphere

The Men's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will be host to the Ladies next Tuesday night and will cook and serve a Boston Baker Bean dinner, (or chicken pie dinner for those allergic to beans) in Friendship Hall at 7:00 o'clock. The Hall will be decorated in the style of a Bowery Cafe of the 1920's with a program of skits burlesquing the times with the men taking all the parts.

Helix's Senior Play is having the final lines polished and will soon be in production for all to see. The cast are as in appearance: Alan Batchelder, Beverly Joseph, Pat Chapman, Karen Rose, Joan Jennings, Dick Brimhall, Ken Turknet, Shirley Campbell, Lea Johnson, Bob Tipton, Paul Arnold, and Bill Gribben. As far as I know, which isn't very far, the play will be held in the Helix High Little Theater this May 7-9-12-13-14 for only $5c to see. It'll start at 8:15 p. m. and you can purchase your tickets from any senior around the school.

Many Helix Auto shop students were anxiously awaiting the opening day for the two Industrial Arts Buildings, their worries are over as of now. Because, just a few days ago, they were all lined up in the grease-pot. The shop has the most modern equipment available to any High School, plus them having a complete engine tune-up tester. If any of you people want to visit the shops, and you see tools and parts lying from one end of the shop to the other, don't be alarmed, it's just a couple of the boys dissecting a B-29.

Solleder Seeks Teachers In Mid-West

S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent of schools in Lemon Grove, has secured three new teachers for the district in his tour of western and mid-western colleges. From New Mexico, Solleder wrote that Miss Laura M. Becker, highly recommended graduate of Arizona State, has been signed as the new girls' physical education teacher for the junior high. She will replace Miss Donna Dreyer, who is to be married in May and who will reside in Virginia next year.

Miss Becker, who attended Colorado College for Women and the University of Denver before graduating from Arizona State, is outstanding in the work she has done in the recreation field and is well known as a camp counselor and scout worker. Although primarily a P. E. teacher, she is also qualified to teach math and science. The district feels happy about securing such a valuable employee as this, and realizes that if we had not sent a representative out to search for such teachers, we might not have obtained her.

Solleder also reported that a first grade teacher and a sixth grade teacher has been found during the first few days of his trip. No further information on these new employees was available, however, at this time.

The itinerary which the assistant superintendent must follow will include most of the teacher institutions in several states. A rigid bus and train schedule must be followed by Solleder in order to keep all appointments, but it is felt that the vacancies in Lemon Grove will all be filled when school opens here, thanks to Solleder's hard work and the new salary schedule adopted here.

Girl Scouts and Brownie Set Day Camp Dates

The Girl Scouts of District III will have a busy July this year. First the Brownies and Fly Ups have their Day Camp at Eucalyptus Park, Bancroft Road, Spring Valley, on July 7, 8, 9, 10 and 13, 14, 15, 16. The fee will be $2.50, this includes transportation, milk or ice cream, cookouts and program supplies. The Registrar is Mrs. Harry Fisher, 4003 Violet, La Mesa. The Brownie and Fly Up activities will include hikes, field trips, cookouts, games and nature crafts. Register with the Registrar beginning May 1st for Girl Scouts. The fee should be paid within 1 week of registration. Registrations will be limited to 150 girls.

The Intermediate Girls will have a chance at a wonderful experience in a primitive camp of their own this summer. They will have all types of cooking, hiking and experimental cooking and overnights. The place is Miramar Canyon, the dates are July 21, 22, 23, 24, 28, 29, 30, 31. The fee $3.75 includes program, cookouts, milk daily and 25 mile round trip bus fare from central points to campsite. Registration fee should be mailed with the registration card, get your card from Troop Leaders. Mrs. Betty Frates, 2548 Washington, Lemon Grove, Camp Director Mrs. W. A. Dutelle, 9268 Campo Road.

been kept informed as to school plans so that their opinions could be considered," he pointed out.

"Time and consideration must be given to every important school issue and no spur-of-the-moment decisions should be acceptable," he added.

"I seek no shake-up of the school administration system and opinions and decisions will be my own and not those of closely related factions," he added.

He has been a resident of Lemon Grove since 1944, the year he graduated from Hoover High School. He graduated from Stanford and was on the boxing team there. A polo victim, he is confined to a wheelchair. He intends to resign Rohr and start an insurance business in Lemon Grove in June, he said.

it is a progressive community and offers great possibilities businesswise," Miss Mahoney said.
"We intend to feature personalized, friendly service built around popular priced, nationally advertised name brands. Above all, the customer will be the prime consideration in our operation. Lookers, browsers or customers will all be equally welcome," she stated.

has the knowledge and background to cope with school "big business." I therefore retired with the hope that my supporters will support Mr. Armstrong."

"I have entered this challenging race because I am not convinced the taxpayer is getting his money's worth," Attorney Armstrong stated. "More important than that, our children's education suffers when tax money is spent unwisely."

"Board meetings are held on regular schedule, the same day each month so that these meetings have no element of secrecy. The public will be encouraged to come to these meetings to be properly informed. Moreover, P. T. A. and other citizens groups will be leaned upon much more heavily in the future."

"School business," Armstrong pointed out, "is everyone's business and should not become the target of a few malcontents who apparently intend to undermine the entire school system."

Armstrong is a member of the SD County Bar Association and resides at 8230 Golden Avenue.

MIL'S MUSINGS

The Piggly Wiggly store and the Massachusetts - Broadway intersection, patrons of that supermarket will soon see workmen laying a new water main through the parking lot to within four feet of the front door.

FOR THOSE OF YOU that enjoy western music, and we know there must be some, one of the best radio programs available for good western music is heard Saturday evenings at 6:30 on KGB, titled simply, "Barndance." Broadcast from Virginia it offers some fast-paced music, very refreshing in these days of slow dreamy type melodies.

ALTHOUGH ELECTIONS, of the national variety that is, are six months past, a fierce battle is still being waged between two of the candidates for different offices. They are ED BULEN, victor in the Assembly contest, and Lionel VAN DEERLIN, second best congressional campaigner. Each has a paper sign urging a vote for themselves placed on telephone poles at opposite ends of Lemon Grove. To our knowledge, they are the only two election posters still intact. We are waiting now to see which sign can last the longest against the ravages of the elements and vandals. (There's one pleading for votes for Herndon on a port across from the Review, Ed.)

A PASSING MOTORIST, refueling at BILL'S posed one of the most provoking questions we have heard in some time. As it was passed on to us, the stranger queried, "Where does Federal Blvd. end and Broadway begin?" Hhhmmmm. Bet few residents could answer it.

SIGNS OF LEMON GROVE'S rapid expansion is present in the business district where four new businesses are set to go. One a service station, a men's furnishing shop, a dime store, and a women's apparel shop. To all we say welcome.

which had been selected last month to produce a recommendation from the final report on alternatives of government available to the Grove area that had been publicly presented March 24. Other arguments resulted over the membership of the new sub-committee, what it was to do, and how much time it was to be given.

Due to the absence of the newly elected president, Lawrence Giller was elected vice-chairman in order to resume the meeting. It was during this interval that several persons had suggested the assembly make a recommendation on the final report and form a group to carry it out. Continued argument over procedure caused this motion to be overlooked.

Chiefly as a result of this, a group broke away and formed the Lemon Grove Home Rule Association after the close of the stormy C. I. C. session. This new Association, headed by Bob Gietzen, decided to carry incorporation to the people.

Herb Haag, Association secretary, said the decision of the C. I. C. to continue study of a subject already thoroughly investigated for 12 months, the new group was founded. "Ultimately the total population must decide what form of government they desire, no small group can speak for all the people," Haag said. The new group will attempt to determine in a valid manner public opinion on Lemon Grove's future government.

John Dail, former C. I. C. head, lauded the new group and its stand. "After a year's study, I have definitely made up my mind as to what should be done in Lemon Grove. Every person should have made a decision one way or another by now and be prepared to carry it out," he stated.

B. W. L. Give Hospital Card Party For Vets

The Lemon Grove Business Women's League, in conjunction with the Woman's Club, gave a card party for ambulatory patients at the Naval Hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Alex Antonette, B. W. L. representative on the Naval Hospital Red Cross Council, worked with the Woman's Club representative to make the party a success. The Business Women furnished prizes for each table and three door prizes and the Women's Club provided cup cakes and nut cups.

Members of the Business Women's League who attended were: Mrs. Alex Antonette, Al Huebsch, Paul Louer, Arthur Juppelle, Lawrence Sozzani, Alfred Shepard, Wayne Johnson, Jerry Roan, Al Rice and Graydon Roberts.

Hospital Ladies to Meet At Dailey's Ranch

Ladies Auxiliary Grossmont District Hospital will hold its regular monthly meeting at the George Dailey Ranch, Highway 94, Jamul, at 10:00 a. m. Friday, May 5th, with a benefit luncheon to follow. Members may phone reservations to Mrs. McKinley at H6-5068 or Mrs. Gonard at H6-2364.

On Monday, May 19th, the Auxiliary will hold a Country Fair Benefit at the home of Mrs. Moriah, 645 E. Main St., El Cajon, beginning at 11:00 a. m. with a Koffee Klatch. Tickets may be had by contacting Mrs. Moriah.

Everlasting Punishment Defined

Can the ability to understand man as inseparable from his heavenly Father be gained and a mis-spent life corrected? Yes, declares the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text from Hebrews (12:11) reads, "No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised there by."

"Treganza Tribe"

By Robert Turnbull

(2nd in a series of 4 pertaining to the Treganza's)

Next along the line would be one Alberto Owen Treganza who was born in a neighboring state, Denver, Colorado. A. O. Treganza was noted for many things: a few of them were a "Landscape Artist," "Ornithologist" and he had a life membership in the "American Institute of Architects." Mr. Treganza was especially noted for being the leading U. S. Amateur Ornithologist and had the best private egg collection in the U. S. He lived in various parts of the country, but the two most settled spots to him in his life were Salt Lake City, Utah, and Lemon Grove. While in Salt Lake, after he had chalked up five children to his name, he became the President of the Lions Club in their city, then later he was honored with being the "District Governor of Lions International." His first national acclaim was when he invented a new type of gun to be used by sheep herders against coyotes. Then Alberto's designing career started upward. His first works was designing the Salt Lake City Zoo and while doing that he helped his 'egg hunt' phase of life by classifying birds and eggs for the U. S. in Utah with his wife, Antwonet.

Alberto then moved to Lemon Grove with family. Among the things he became are: the design of the police station on Market Street; being architect to Randolph J. Morse's home; Mr. and Mrs. Issots home on Kempf St.; the First National Bank in La Mesa; "Ernie's Rancho" past El Cajon; and designing the original Lemon Avenue School.

Actually, the only thing he built, besides his home, was the First Post Office in the Grove. One strange incident in Alberto Owen Treganza's life was the fact he played on the first-string San Diego Y. M. C. A. Football team which won the Southland Football Championship in 1897, and in doing this they beat U. S. C. 16-0. A little unusual, eh?

He also designed the Del Mar Fair Grounds building and race track, plus doing the Wheeler home in Bonita Hills and the George T. Bauder home in La Jolla.

He also designed the Cafe-of-the-World, a highlight enterprise of the entire Ean Diego Exposition in 1935. Also he designed the El Campanario Bell Tower at 22nd District Agriculture Association Fair Grounds, Del Mar.

Alberto designed schools in different parts of the county but died while making plans for the La Mesa Civic Center. His last two works were ones that rewarded him tremendously. The first because he was the runner-up in an international competition for design of the Australian Capitol of Canberra. Second: The many letters from the Utah and California Governors, commending him for his tireless efforts for betterment of mankind. (Next week, his still-living wife, Antwonet Treganza).

Land Title Company Takes Larger Quarters

When Land Title Insurance Company moved its title division this month, the operation was accomplished with the precision and timing of a military movement. The title plant moved to the recently remodeled, air conditioned and otherwise modernized lower level of this same address.

"This move into spacious new quarters will result in efficiency in our operation." Thomas A. Clarkson, Vice President and Manager of Land Title Insurance Company said, "and while the actual move was not far in distance, it was complicated by the nature of our business."

The remodeled plant level quarters contain 8200 square feet of floor space — more than double the area formerly occupied by the plant division. All title records of Land Title Insurance Company are maintained on micro film and one of the most important items moved was the thermostatically controlled film cabinets about the size of regular letter files, which contain photographic reproductions of all documents recorded in San Diego County since the Treaty of Guad-

IT'S DEPENDABLE

JUST ONE OF 9 REASONS TO CHANGE TO A NEW ELECTRIC RANGE!

A new electric range makes any cook a good cook — and a good cook, a better cook — because it's so dependable.

You press the button — it delivers just the heat selected — every time — with no variation and no guess work.

And dependability is just one of nine good reasons so many people have made the change to a new electric range.

It's the clean, cool, speedy way to cook. It's modern. It's automatic.

It makes foods taste better and it delivers to you more healthful vitamins and minerals — because you cook with less water — and that saves you money because less food is wasted in the cooking.

For kitchen living 9 ways better — now change to an electric range. Your dealer has many makes, many models — all on easy terms.

Reddy Kilowatt, your electrical servant, says, "You get showers of hot water quickly, easily, safely, when you have an electric water heater."
